Subject: OIG Freedom of Information Act Request No. 2019-IGFO-00198
Final Response

Dear Mr. Misra:

This responds to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Office of Inspector General (OIG), dated July 8, 2019, seeking all materials relied upon by DHS-OIG in preparation of Report No. OIG-19-51, including, but not limited to, photographs, interview notes, and electronic or paper communications; all responses from Department of Homeland Security agency components, including, but not limited to ICE, CBP, and Immigrant Health Services Corps, regarding the recommendations in Report No. OIG-19-51; all follow-up communications from OIG to any DHS agency component or Congressional liaison based on Report No. OIG-19-51; all communications between OIG and subject-matter experts, including, but not limited to, public health officials. Your request was received in this office on July 8, 2019.

In response to your request, a search of the DHS-OIG Office of Inspections was conducted. That search resulted in the enclosed records responsive to your request. We reviewed the responsive records under the FOIA to determine whether they may be disclosed to you. Based on that review, this office is providing the following:

148 page(s) are released in full (RIF);
28 page(s) are released in part (RIP);
180 page(s) are withheld in full (WIF);
0 page(s) were referred to another entity.

The exemptions cited for withholding records or portions of records are marked below.

OIG redacted from the enclosed documents, names and identifying information of third parties to protect the identities of these individuals. Absent a Privacy Act waiver, the release of such information concerning the third parties named in these records would result in an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy in violation of the Privacy Act. Information is also protected from disclosure pursuant to Exemptions b5 & b6 of the FOIA further discussed below.

Exemption 5, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5)

Exemption 5 of the FOIA protects “inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency.” 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5). DHS-OIG is invoking the deliberative process privilege of Exemption 5 to protect information that falls within that privilege’s domain.

Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6)

Exemption 6 allows withholding of “personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.” 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6)(emphasis added). DHS-OIG is invoking Exemption 6 to protect: the names of third parties and any information that could reasonably be expected to identify such individuals.

Exemption 7(C), 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(C)

Exemption 7(C) protects from public disclosure “records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes . . . [if disclosure] could reasonably be expected to cause an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.” 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(C). DHS-OIG is invoking Exemption 7(C) to protect example: the identities of third parties, and any information contained in these investigative records that could reasonably be expected to identify those individuals.

Appeal

You have the right to appeal this response.¹ Your appeal must be in writing and received within 90 days after the date of this response. Please address any appeal to:

Additionally, the 2007 FOIA amendments created the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. If you are requesting access to your own records (which is considered a Privacy Act request), you should know that OGIS does not have the authority to handle requests made under the Privacy Act of 1974. Using OGIS services does not affect your
